This dedicated foundation was designed by Bloom Construction specifically for the tribute. It is made with cement. There are four bolts holding each member in place. These bolts are imbedded about two feet into the concrete. Therefore it is extremely difficult to break them.